

NIGHT CITY MUNICIPAL POLICE DEPARTMENT

Officer in Charge of Investigation: Det. Sarah Essen

Notes:

The person pictured below is Joanna Riggs. She is a suspect in a rash of high-rise burglaries in the Corporate Sector over the last two months. Ms. Riggs has reportedly been seen at all of the burglarized locations within a few days of the actual crimes.

All of the burglaries have the same M.O.—the security systems were all expertly disabled, and then reactivated after the thefts were completed.

All attempts to get additional information on Ms. Riggs' background have been fruitless. The name Joanna Riggs may be an alias. She remains the number one suspect.

Sounds like the cops
might be onto you, Riggs.
Time for something a little different, I think.
